

【Together, We Fight the Virus, Tsz Shan Monastery will be temporarily closed】

In view of the latest development of COVID-19, Tsz Shan Monastery will be temporarily closed for 14 days from January 7, 2022 (Friday) to January 20, 2022(Thursday)¹.

Those who have registered for a visit during the closure are welcome to visit the Monastery within three months after its re-opening, by presenting the original confirmation email, without the need of additional registration. You could visit the monastery after its re-opening at the same timeslot as in your previous registration. Please note that:

1. Lotus lights collection will be cancelled during the closure (January 7 to January 20, 2022), we will make further announcement on how you may collect them again.
2. The Registrant should be physically present throughout the assigned time slot on the date of visit. Any change of the number of visitor(s) is not allowed. All registrations are not transferrable.
3. Please follow the same timeslot as in your previous registration. For example, if your original registered entry time was 10 am, you should arrive at 10 am on the date of visit.
4. Any vehicle without a confirmed parking space will not be allowed to enter the Monastery. Please register through our online form (<https://forms.gle/PUErFqbp2UojCPN79>). Only one private car could be registered for each registration. Parking spaces are allocated on a "first come, first served" basis, subject to availability.
5. The above rescheduling arrangement is not applicable to the following dates:
 - A. January 31, 2022 to February 7, 2022
 - B. March 20, 2022

“One is complete by nature, and there is no need to seek outwards.” Please maintain social distancing when we stand together fighting off the COVID-19. Cherish the time to look inwards, practice mindfulness, and send loving-kindness to Hong Kong and the world. Please follow our website and Facebook for any latest update.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Tsz Shan Monastery cares for you.

¹The function of change/cancellation will also be suspended during the closure.

(Updated on: 6/1/2022)